

■ Listening

Classroom Interaction: Washoku

Q1. How does the professor organize the information he presents to the class?

- (A) By talking about the health benefits of traditional Japanese food
- (B) By describing Japanese food culture
- (C) By mentioning UNESCO's Intangible Cultural Heritage list
- (D) By discussing some important qualities of Washoku

Q2. How is Washoku culture passed down from generation to generation?

- (A) Japanese like to celebrate the seasons with important festivals.
- (B) Japanese children take a mandatory class about traditional foods in school.
- (C) Children who experience Washoku at annual festivals will grow up to share the tradition with their own children.
- (D) People grow traditional regional vegetables.

■ Key Sentence

Key Sentence:

Japan is an island nation surrounded by seas where warm and cold currents converge.

Pattern:

(Subject) is/are (noun) where (subject) (verb phrase).

Write your sentence.